About Chelmsford Lions

There has been a Lions Club in Chelmsford for 51 years. The aim of our club is to help local causes and our community whilst having fun. As well as our own fundraising activities and a wide social calendar, we regularly help out at community events wherever there is a need for extra help.

We always welcome new members to our friendly, active club. Our members are all unpaid volunteers who want to provide a service in our community, we come from all walks of life regardless of age, gender, race or religion. Our club is part of Lions Clubs International, which is the world's largest service organisation with 1.4 million members worldwide.

Not local to Chelmsford? If you tell us where you live, we can put you in touch with your nearest club. With 1.4m Lions in 46,000 clubs around the world, you're never far from a Lion!
